The Racial Equity Organizing Team is seeking more people to support our work in becoming a more radically welcoming congregation for people of color, indigenous peoples, and people of all ethnicities. We host workshops, movies, and book discussions, and encourage participation in local interfaith events that promote racial equity. Contact Reverend Taddeo at revtaddeo@uucg.org.

The Green Team: The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Gwinnett has established a Green Team in order to help our congregation live more fully into our shared UU commitment to affirm and promote "respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part." We enter this work joyfully and with hope as we seek to model an ethic of care for our shared planet and all its inhabitants. Contact us at GreenTeam@uucg.org.

Fostering Spiritual Growth... July Theme: June Theme: Transcendance Freedom and Responsibility

Worship Services, Sundays at 11:00 am

Our services are led by our minister, the Reverend Jan Taddeo, and our inspiring team of Service Leaders and Worship Associates. This is our sacred time to gather in our cherished space to recall our true selves, reflect on the meaning of our lives, and explore questions of ultimacy together. All ages are welcome in our worship services, and child care is available for the youngest if desired. Children 5 and over are encouraged to be with their parents in the service. There is a table of intention in the back of the service with activities related to the service for fidgeters. You may contact Reverend Jan Taddeo at RevTaddeo@uucg.org.

June 2 The Transcendence of Poetry

Poetry has the power to paint images in our minds, express feelings that prose can't touch, and take us to far away places and distant planes of existence. In this service people will share the transcendent poetry that has been part of their journey.

Rev. Jan Taddeo, Service Leader Sherree Bailey, Worship Associate

June 9 New Old Songs We've Discovered

Music is central in most religious traditions in part to inspire the soul and transcend the mundane. It is also essential in teaching the faith. In this "reverse" hymn-sing service, the choir will teach some new old songs they've discovered in our hymnal. Come, sing a song with us ... several songs!

Rev. Jan Taddeo, Service Leader Bob Patrick, Worship Associate

June 16 Moving On

Our journey is long- a lifetime of wonder and wander. A few steps, questions/ answers... and then we move on.

Lydia Patrick, Service Leader Lorena Griffin, Worship Associate

June 23 Set the Controls for the Heart of the Sun

Set the Controls for the Heart of the Sun : Tending the Sunshine of Our Lives! (title) Unitarian Universalism supports the practice and experience of joy, pleasure and well-being as well as providing a compassionate container for sorrow, grief and loss. Come celebrate the "sunshine" moments of our lives and their power to change our lives!

Daniel Bailey, Service Leader Miriam Patrick, Worship Associate

June 30 Life and Its Moments

Sherree Bailey, Service Leader TBD, Worship Associate

July 7 Who Chooses?

In his book "21 Lessons for the 21st Century" Yuval Noah Harari states that a secular society and religious institutions can co-exist as long as "when the secular [moral/ethical] code collides with religious doctrine, the latter gives way." What happens when religious doctrine infects and takes over the secular code on complex issues, like a woman's right to make choices about her own reproductive health?

Rev. Jan Taddeo, Service Leader Lydia Patrick, Worship Associate

July 14 Free and Responsible: Please Check Your Prepositions

In American-speak, the words "freedom" and "responsibility" have been reduced to a kind of viral individualism. Freedom means what I am free to do. Responsibility means what I have to take care of--and none of that is any of your business. In this service we will consider some questions that may reframe what it means when we Unitarian Universalists use the words "free and responsible."

Bob Patrick, Service Leader TBD, Worship Associate

Building, Land, and Sewer Upgrades

Heather Adams, Director for Turning Sun School Gwinnett, has been working hard to prepare the classrooms for their opening in August. She has painted the classrooms, had the flooring replaced in the Playhouse and the Laboratory, and she will start working on making some updates to the small playground this month. You'll see some of the play equipment and fencing removed, the swing structure transformed into something else, and a dirt hill added to the side of the playground as a fun transition from the lower play space to the upper.

Fencing will be added after the sewer project is completed, and that will include fencing in the larger playground which will be for UUCG use only. Heather has had several families tour the school in May and registrations are coming in!

Now that we know that our septic system is not to code and under built to serve UUCG's current needs, we are moving forward to get it done soon not only for us but also so Turning Sun can acquire the licenses and permits they need to open in August. Although the process has moved more slowly than we hoped, we are still optimistic the project will be completed by the end of June, or early July at the latest.

Social Justice Events

Monday, June 24 7:30pm-9:30pm AROMA: Activists, Recruiting, Organizing, & Mentoring in Atlanta Meet & Greet at UUCG.

AROMA aims to provide a gateway for interested people to begin to discover activism and what it means. We wish to serve as a recruitment agency for social justice movements in the Atlanta area. We strive to reach out to those frustrated with injustice in the world and give them hope by exposing them to the little-known work and legacy of social justice activism. We want to connect potential activists with current activists, organizations and movements. We commit to support these “new recruits” as they self-direct their exploration of the many ways to engage in activism. We endeavor to help them find their place in today’s movements, and guide them in learning and developing the knowledge and skills necessary to participate fully in making the changes we need in the world. Southeast Unitarian Universalist Summer Institute July 14-21

SUUSI is an intentional community of UUs and kindred spirits. For over 65 years we have come together for a week in July to explore our interconnectedness, delight in the outdoors, enjoy music and learn new ways of seeing our world and each other. SUUSI is an intentional community, a family vacation, a fun summer camp for grownups, a religious retreat, a mountain adventure, a music festival. SUUSI can be any or all of these things, depending on what you’re looking for and what feeds your spirit. Financial support is available to make this week accessible to everyone. Rev. Jan Taddeo attends every year and is involved in the leadership. Visit www.suusi.org for more info.

SUUSI can be different things to different people in your family. Maybe you like to get up at dawn for a strenuous hike, but your partner is more of a late-night cupcake maker. Maybe your kids like to play hard outdoors all day, but you’d rather make art or meditate. SUUSI lets families be on the same vacation but following different paths... until it’s time for everyone to meet up for a concert, a board game, or a worship service. Find out more about the many sides of SUUSI...

Spiritual life at SUUSI includes two worship services a day led by inspiring Unitarian-Universalist ministers and musicians. But that’s not how everyone chooses to feed their spirit. You might take a class in yoga or meditation, or join a workshop with intellectual religious discussion. You might have quiet late-night talks about the meaning of life in a dorm lounge with new friends. You might find spiritual refreshment at the top of a mountain after a hike. Or your soul might be satisfied volunteering in the Community Garden, helping to provide fresh food for local residents.

Nature trips are an essential part of SUUSI for many. Western Carolina University is located in the heart of the Great Smoky Mountains, and opportunities for hiking, biking, canoeing, kayaking, and climbing are all around us. Your experienced and knowledgeable SUUSI Nature staff can teach you new skills or enhance your knowledge of the natural world. Trips are offered for all interests and ability levels.

Workshops at SUUSI come in all varieties: serious, silly, intellectual, emotional, artistic, logical, active, meditative. Taste wines, chocolates, or teas; learn to crochet or paint with alcohol inks; explore geology, politics, or forensic science; practice tai chi, folk dance, or improv exercises. Take a deep dive into one subject or a bouquet of many

Music weaves through almost every aspect of SUUSI life. Concerts bring nationally touring musicians to the SUUSI stage, but that’s only the beginning. We have music at worship and music for the young children in the Youth program. Cabaret offers a wide variety of performances from professional musicians and talented amateurs. You can join SUUSI’s pickup choir, The Big Sing, or play in the folk orchestra. Grab the spotlight at the Community Time open mic or participate in song circles until the wee hours in the Common Ground Cafe.

Sports and Games is your outlet for cooperative or friendly-competitive organized play. Each year we challenge our arch-rivals on the WCU Conference Staff to games of inner tube water polo or volleyball. We play Frisbee golf and juggle soccer balls, have tournaments in tennis and Ping-Pong, gather for bridge and Texas Hold ‘Em, and play every imaginable board game in the Pair-a-Dice game room. There’s something for every age and ability.

Family and intergenerational programs are central to SUUSI’s mission. SUUSI offers fun, supportive, nurturing programs for children and teens of all ages, as well as countless opportunities for interaction across generations. Bring your parents and your children to the teen-led worship on Wednesday night. Sign up your siblings and cousins for a tubing trip down the Little Tennessee River. Volunteer to sing to babies in the nursery or to pass out sno-cones at Community Time.
